Standard iSites Migration
Course iSites are typically recreated each year. Not so with standard iSites.

iSites are important administrative tools, used for:
• Public facing communication
• Administrative functions
• Private collaborations
• And so on – iSites can do everything!

But the iSites platform is built on old technology and is no longer sustainable.
What does this mean for you?

Migrating your iSite is not always a simple process. It might require you to:

- Review and confirm your business requirements
- Find a platform that meets those requirements
- Check that you have access to that platform
- Learn how to use the new platform
- Get buy-in from your stakeholders
- Inventory your site
- Migrate navigation, content, images, video and files
- Launch a new site, with a new domain name

But we are here to help.
Outcomes

These are the outcomes we are working towards:

• Sustainable web platforms that meet key customer needs
• Improved overall user experiences
• Strategic solutions to issues identified during discovery process
• Comprehensive, accurate reporting
• Repository of website data for future
• Informed and satisfied customers
• Retirement of the iSites platform
Process

With over 1000 iSites in Central Admin and no easy way to identify the owners or their department, we have to be efficient. Our process is:

• Empty sites - Make Inactive

• Affiliation – Match administrators to departments using Midas

• Liaisons – Find someone to help manage the iSites in departments

• Emails – Send to liaisons with list of iSites and status updates

• Survey – Collect metadata for each iSite that will migrate to other platforms

• Support – Partner with you to help with migrations

• Tracking – Update iSite status in Salesforce
Two Phases

The Plan:

• Phase One – FY15
  – Identify all iSites that will NOT migrate and retire them (make them inactive)

• Phase Two – FY16
  – Migrate all remaining iSites to a new platform

The Reality:
  – It’s not that simple…
Web Platforms

Not available to everyone…

• OpenScholar – anyone with a Harvard ID
• Harvard Wikis – anyone with a Harvard ID
• Harvard Blog – academic content only
• Harvard SharePoint – for CA, HDS, HSPH, FAS, GSE, GSD, Radcliffe and GSAS
• Harvard Google Sites – for FAS, GSAS, DCE, and Summer School
• Harvard Qualtrics – anyone with a Harvard ID except HMS, Dental, and HBS
• Canvas – informal learning experiences only
Functionality Gaps

Retiring the iSites platform leaves some gaps in our web service delivery, especially around:

– Permissions
– Signup tools
– Granular access
– Video publishing

This process has also raised other issues:

– Accessibility standards
– Confidentiality (Level 3) standards
– Collecting metadata for tracking and reporting
– Redirects and domain naming processes
– Replacing applications
Any Room on your Roadmap?

We are talking to other teams in HUIT about:

- A central permission management system to replace the current iCommons API
- A video solution that will meet the needs of non-course websites
- Accessibility compliance for web platforms to the WCAG 2 AA standard
- Confidentiality (Level 3) compliance for web platforms
- A metadata solution for tracking and reporting supported websites
- An archive solution for those iSites that require retention or preservation
- A redirect and domain naming solution for iSites that have migrated to other platforms
- A signup tool for recurring events
